>>> aimed at promoting the program and help students with the concept >>> and registration for Scholarship.

>>> 2. Students will need to register through an App that will be >>> hosted on EY India Careers page on Facebook. We will share the >>> collaterals related to the registration, with the college.

>>> 3. EY will put up posters and standees in the college to create >>> visibility and interest

>>> 4. Our volunteers (may be some of the alumni of your college) >>> will be visiting college campus for 2 days to conduct on the spot >>> registration and take up queries of students.

>>> 5. Registration will be open for 6-8 weeks

>>> 6. Review of cases will be done for next two weeks and finalists >>> to be announced post that .

>>> 8. Finalists will make presentation to the panel (comprising of >>> EY partners and college professors). We will be hosting some on >>> the spot competitions for the spectators to engage them on the day >>> of the final event. We would like students from various batches to >>> witness the event.

>>> IMMEDIATE ASK

>>> 1. Confirm the event dates:

>>> - Date for Launch event : in the week of 18th Sep

>>> 2. To conduct the launch event we would require an >>> Auditorium/large conference room, presence of all 2nd year >>> students from Humanities and Commerce streams 3. College >>> Coordinators to support EY throughout the >>> process: names and contact details (contact number, email address)

>>> - Student SPOC

>>> - Teacher SPOC

>>> 4. Batch strength of second year

>>> 5. No. of marketing collaterals that can be put up in college:

>>> - Standees

>>> - Posters

>>> 6. Please nominate two senior professors who will be part of the >>> panel along with EY partners to judge the finalists

>>> Request you to confirm the launch date which should not clash with >>> any of the event in the college as we want maximum participation >>> of the students.

>>> *Dates will be finalised once we move ahead.
