Event report

On the occasion of the 77th Independence Day, the proceedings were inaugurated with a gracious reception extended to esteemed Chief Guest Air Commodore (Retired) JLN Sastry, VSM and Vice Chairman of Bharathiya Vidya Bhavan, Sainikpuri Kendra. This distinguished gathering was cordially welcomed by Dr. G.S.V.R.K. Choudhary, erudite Principal of Bhavan's Vivekananda College. The ceremonial entrance of the Chief Guest was accompanied by a procession of NCC cadets, adding a poignant touch of honour to the event.

The student body extended a warm welcome to our esteemed Principal, Dr. GSVRK Choudhary, and the distinguished Sri JLN Sastry, the esteemed Chief Guest, unfurled the national flag, an act of profound significance, accompanied by the resonant strains of the National Anthem that stirred the hearts of all present. The NCC cadets ceremoniously escorted the Chief Guest to the elevated dais.

Bhavans prayer emanated, imbuing the proceedings with a palpable sense of spirituality and cohesive purpose. Subsequently, an exclusive pledge, emblematic of unwavering commitment, resonated through the gathering, vowing to uphold India's honor and diligently pave the path towards a progressive vision for the year 2047, was administered by Mrs. G.S. Mini, the Head of the Department of Mathematics & Statistics.

The parade commenced under the authoritative lead of Parade Commander Senior Under Officer Mihir Razvi, pursuing B.Sc HDS, followed by the Flag Bearer, Sargent M. Neelima Naidu, of B.Sc MPCs, alongside the presence of two proficient Junior Under Officers. The NCC contingent, characterized by impeccable precision and unwavering discipline.

In the same spirit of allegiance, the National Service Scheme (NSS) contingent, led by Commander V.K. Ashwini, B.Com General, advanced with solemnity. Accompanying her was the flag bearer, Durga Bhavani of B.Com Computers. The procession continued with the Bharat Scouts and Guides (BSG), with the esteemed R. Laxmi Prashanti proudly bearing the flag, followed by the determined YRC Contingent Commander, Esha Mallika, of BBA. Concluding this remarkable display was the Flag Bearer, J. Aishwarya, of MPCs, evokes a sense of pride and accomplishment.
