Teachers Day Celebrations

5th September, 2019

The dictionary confines the meaning of a teacher as someone whose job is teaching but we know that's not true because a teacher is an embodiment of knowledge, an epitome of strength and care and a pillar of confidence. To acknowledge, reciprocate and celebrate their love, compassion and hard work Bhavan's Vivekananda College decided to commemorate teachers day on 5th September 2019. The gala was instituted with the sacred prayer filling everyone with its holiness. The audience included the Principal, the Vice Principal, faculty and all the students. Soon the aura changed as the students danced and captivated the audience with their enthralling passé and nostalgic retro moves and everyone was swayed by it. The next phase of the fiesta was followed by a theatrical skit which left a beautiful mark behind. The event was organized by Xperssionz club with utmost dedication to make the day successful and memorable. They expressed their gratitude to the ones who inspire, teach and encourage. The day was filled with bliss as our teachers were celebrated.

Bhavanostav

2nd & 3rd August, 2019

DAY-1

The most awaited and energetic event of the college – Bhavanostav has finally taken place in the college. The college witnessed a huge participation of ‘ ‘ despite the tragedies of the weather. In fact the rains were perceived as boon instead of bane. Volunteers of the college were seen performing their duties right from checking the ID cards at the entry gate to guiding the participants. The event kick started with the presence of the honorable Chairman, Principal and members of the staff. After following the traditions of Bhavan’s with prayer, lighting of the lamp and inaugural addressing the program begun.

After the inaugural dance performance and briefing, the participants were seen tightening their shoe lace and get ready to enter their battle fields with zeal.

Not to forget the efforts put together for installing the stalls. From biryani to shakes to hot coffee and many more we could see all types of stalls in the campus. Our very own entrepreneurs welcomed the customers to take pleasure in the stalls. In spite of the rain, they managed to keep up with the customers and their needs. Both formal and informal events were organized. After huge participation and exploring a world of adventure, participants gathered near the shamiyana for the intimation of the closing of the day 1 event.

This year, all the departments at Bhavan’s Vivekananda College of Science, Humanities and Commerce had come up with an array of formal and informal events to bring out the innate potential in our participants. These events and their departments are

1. Disha under the Commerce Department
2. Soch under the BA Department
3. Medha under the Management Department
4. Bhasha Tarang under the Languages Department

5. Pscife and Asymptote under the Physical Sciences Department which includes computer science fusion tech club ,mathematics & statistics and physics & electronics.
6. greENERGY under The Department of Life Sciences
7. Kalasangam under the Xpressionz Club
8. Cognition under The Bhavan's Quiz Club
9. Bhavya under the Bhavan's Women's Cell

Last but not the least, all the departments had come together as one to organize a Treasure Hunt as an independent event.

DAY-2

In order to not just remain at the top level and experience everything they could, participants were seen in the day 2 event. Though the rains didn't pause, we saw an extremely enthusiastic set of participants. After the addressing and briefing of the day 2 events, they were all scattered to their spots. The stalls managed to keep up their efficiency by building new strategies and target markets. Apart from food stalls, we could also view gaming stalls, photo booth stalls where there were reasonable amount of customers gathered.

Just as every beautiful journey has a beginning, it also has a graceful end. With hope and excitement on their faces, everyone was awaiting the valedictory program to begun. We could watch the crowd lightening the energy throughout the campus and the winners sharing their joy of achievement. In the end, all that mattered was a healthy competition and participation. With combined efforts of the management and participants the event was successful.

Independence Day

15th August, 2019

To commemorate the sovereignty of the nation, our college celebrated the 73rd Independence Day with great solemnity and patriotic fervour on August 15, 2019. The ceremony commenced at ____ with a large crowd of students and staff at Vivek Bharathi. The morning was marked with the kind presence of the Vice Chairman who unfurled the flag. All students sang the national anthem in unison which was then followed by a march past by NCC cadets, NSS and Bharat Scouts and Guides. The students shared their views on the significance of Independence Day in four different languages. The academic toppers of every department were given mementos by the dignitaries. The event then continued as the members of Xpressionz Club showcased different cultures of India through skit dance, instrumental and singing performances highlighting the idea of unity in diversity. Indeed, it was a day to love and respect our country and experience peace. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks by ____.

FRESHERS

Novato Fiesta, 12th July, 2019

The Fresher's Party: Novato Fiesta, was held on the 12th of July to welcome all the students who joined the college this year. The Xpressionz team along with various senior students organised the event with a lot of pomp. The event began at 1:00PM sharp and the students dressed according to the dress codes announced i.e. black and red for the first years, blue for the second years and an open theme for the third years. The theme for this year was 'Scarlet'. The event commenced with the Vice Chairman of BVB addressing the Fresher's followed by the Principal and the Lecturer coordinator of the club. The program began with the ramp walk by the heads, followed by the rounds of the Most Promising Fresher and also included numerous performances by the singing, dancing and the theatre departments. The performances were cheered for and the day ended with Ms.Pooja from B.Com (Honors) being crowned the Most Promising Fresher for the year 2019. The event concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by one of the lecturer incharges of Xpressionz club.

FAREWELL PARTY

Meraki, 2nd March, 2019

The final token of appreciation and gratitude to the graduating seniors from the juniors was clearly visible on the day through 'Meraki'- The Farewell Party 2019. It was a carnival at Bhavan's Vivekananda College. Engaging stalls, jokers and bright colours were all around. The seniors had entered college with a show of Punjabi dhol and dancing at 11.00 a.m. which indeed was a surprise for the rest of the students. The programme had begun at 12.00 p.m. after all the seniors entered and visited all the stalls set up by juniors at the science quadrangle. The event commenced with the dignitaries addressing the graduating students followed by an inaugural dance. It was filled with dance, music, songs, skits and the colours of a carnival. There were engaging performances by the juniors which didn't fail to impress the audience and as a matter of fact, did get the seniors emotional at points. There was a room of reminiscence set up in the biochemistry block so that the seniors could relive their journey at college through a series of pictures and videos that were projected. Overall, it was a day filled with joy and emotions for everyone who was going to graduate and also for those who would dearly miss them. The programme ended with the Vote of Thanks by the Vice Principal.
