Hyderabad: The brightest minds from colleges in and around Hyderabad gathered at Sultan-Ul-Uloom College at Banjara Hills, for the ET in Campus Quiz 2015 organised in association with Vellore Institute of Technology, Chennai.

This year, up to 130 colleges clashed in this battle of wits.

In the prelim round, participants faced an interesting blend of 20 visual, trick and current-affair questions.

Out of the 244 teams, 6 teams qualified for the final round. The team from St Francis College for Women, Begumpet, who missed the cut by a mark, was recognised. For the finals, the six teams were called on to the stage where exciting rounds such as Market News, ET Today, News by Industry and a few others awaited them.

Other participants too had a chance to bag prizes from Conquer, Zipin, Salz Resto Bar and DZE Dance Studio by answering the audience questions doled out by quiz master Lloyd Saldanha.

Finally, students from Nalsar University of Law KVS Lokesh and Balaji S were declared winners of the quiz. They received the coveted rolling shield from Sultan-Ul-Uloom Educational Society given away by honorary secretary Zafar Javeed and Prof Shehbaz Ahmed, director, Amjad Ali Khan College of Business Administration.

The winners also took home Sony Xperia M2 DS, trophies, certificates and T-shirts from VIT, awarded by Ka-

The first and the second runners-up were from Maulana Azad National Urdu University and Bhavan's Vivekananda College respectively. They were given Sony Xperia E3 along with T-shirts, trophy and certificates. Other finalists from MANAGE, Institute of Public Enterprise and University of Hyderabad bagged Sony BTM and BTV5 speakers along with shields, certificates and T-shirts.

It was a memorable experience for all the students who participated in the quiz and though at the end of the day, only a few walked away with the prizes, everyone walked away a little more wiser.
