I have perused the inaugural copy of SAMVRIDHI, Vol-I, No:1 brought out by BVC MBA Dept.

I congratulate Dr. N.S. Chakravarty Head of Dept and Mrs. K. Suvarchala Rani and her team of students who have conceived, compiled and edited a new effort with many interesting articles. I am sure that with this springboard, SAMVRIDHI will grow in the years to come as many more enthusiastic management students will actively participate, through their contributions to this magazine.

It gives me immense pleasure to congratulate the faculty and students of Management Studies on their maiden effort in bringing out the quarterly magazine “SAMVRIDHI – BEYOND HALLS OF IVY”.

My appreciation to every member involved in making this initiative bear fruits. I am very confident that the magazine gives the faculty an opportunity to nurture and explore the inherent potential of the students.

Best wishes to all the faculty members and students.
