

ACTIVITIES 2016-17

“ Fun with words” – 17th December 2016

On the 17th of December 2016, the Physical Sciences Club that is the PSCIFE club conducted an event. It was an event titled “Fun with words” and as it suggests, this event focussed on words related to General Science and mathematics. There were 3 rounds in all. The first round was “Guess what” where one of the pair had to enact the word given to them while the other figured it out. The second round was named “Deaf and Dumb”. In this round, one of the team members had to put and wear head phones with fairly loud music while the other team member was taken to the other side of the room and he/she had to say the word picked by them, without any gestures for the first team member to guess. The final round was “Crack the word”. In this round, one of the team had to pick a word and describe it to his or her partner with either the synonyms of that word or a relatable situation. Each round had a specific time limit.
