The Department of Mass Communication orchestrated a thought-provoking event on the 20th of September 2022—a film screening titled "Mahanati," an award-winning Telugu film. The event aimed to provide students with an opportunity to engage with the cinematic arts and foster meaningful discussions on the film's themes. The screening was followed by a discussion session led by Mr. Vamshi, a student from BAI, and Mr. Shiva Thrishul, a faculty member.

A total of 20 students participated in the event, creating an atmosphere of enthusiasm and shared appreciation for the cinematic medium. The film, renowned for its artistic merit and storytelling prowess, captivated the audience, setting the stage for a dynamic and insightful discussion.

The discussion commenced immediately after the screening, with Mr. Vamshi and Mr. Shiva Thrishul offering their perspectives on various aspects of the film, such as its narrative structure, cinematography, and thematic depth. Their unique viewpoints, representing both a student's fresh perspective and a faculty member's seasoned insight, enriched the discourse.

The participants actively engaged in the discussion, sharing their observations and interpretations of "Mahanati." The diverse range of opinions contributed to a comprehensive exploration of the film's impact and relevance. The event not only fostered a deeper appreciation for the art of filmmaking but also encouraged critical thinking and analytical skills among the students.

In conclusion, the film screening and discussion on "Mahanati" organized by the Department of Mass Communication served as a commendable platform for academic and cultural enrichment. The combination of cinematic appreciation and insightful dialogue exemplifies the department's commitment to holistic education. Such events contribute significantly to the intellectual and creative development of students, fostering a vibrant and intellectually stimulating academic environment.
